

SHELLEY COLLEGE - A CASHLESS COLLEGE

Shelley College is a cashless college. This means that payments for lunches, trips and events are all made through the online payment provider ParentPay. To ensure that your account operates in credit, you can set up a free low balance email reminder once your account is activated by going to 'Communication' and, selecting 'Alert Settings' to set up a low balance alert.

A CONVENIENT WAY TO PAY

ParentPay specialise in payment solutions for schools and colleges. If you have more than one child at Shelley College, you can link accounts to make them accessible through a single login. You can also link accounts for siblings at other schools which use ParentPay.

Online Payment Features

- A secure way to pay which avoids bringing cash or cheques into school
- Available 24 hours a day allowing you to make payments at your convenience
- Accepts a variety of payment methods – debit and credit cards and Pay Point
- An online history of all payments made to school for lunch money, trips and visits
- Accepts instalment payments for higher value trips
- Email receipts for every online payment
- Single account login for all siblings at the same school and even siblings from other schools which use the same payment system
- Multiple logins are possible if other family members wish to access the payment service
- ParentPay can also be accessed via the payments link on the homepage of the MyEd App which can be downloaded at myedschoolapp.com

STUDENT ACCOUNT

Included in the pack is your Parent Pay activation letter. Please ensure the account is activated prior to your child arriving on transition week.
